

The Maguas

An emo-leaning, alternative rock outfit based in Scranton, PA.

Established in 2018, the band released their self-produced debut EP, 'Good Beer,' the following year. The Maguas set to work with producer Nik Bruzzese (Man Overboard) on their sophomore release in early 2020. 'One Of Us Is Lying' dropped later that year, quickly garnering significant traction within the scene and earning them recognition from an array of outlets including Alternative Press.

EVERGREEN FULL EP STREAM

The band's third EP dropped in Dec. 2021. Evergreen garnered over 100k streams in its first month, attracting listeners across emo generations with its novel-but-nostalgic sound and dark, vulnerable lyrical themes. Ahead of the release, they embarked on their first U.S. tour, alongside Dear Youth and Outafime!, and earned features from publications such as chorus.fm and Volatile Weekly.

Charging full steam ahead in 2022, The Maguas are now recording for a summer release. Their debut full-length album is also in the works and anticipated for 2023.

GLUM MUSIC VIDEO

DRIFTER MUSIC VIDEO

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2018	Band formation in May 2018
	Released debut EP "Good Beer"
2019	Opened for acts such as Assuming We Survive , Forever Came Calling , & We Were Sharks
	Released sophomore EP "One Of Us Is Lying"
2020	Notable Features: The Noise, New Noise Magazine, All Punked Up, idobi Radio, Spinning Thoughts, & more
	Released "Evergreen" EP
	Named "Top 10 Unsigned Emo Band To Keep An Eye On In 2021" by Alternative Press
2021	U.S. Tour with Dear Youth & Outafime!
	Opened for acts such as The Spill Canvas , Secondhand Serenade , Rain City Drive , The Dangerous Summer , SayWeCanFly , & Kulick
	Notable Features: chorus.fm
	1 Million Total Streams on Spotify
2022	Opening for acts such as Set It Off , The Dangerous Summer , Cory Wells

